1. Workshop called to order.

Speaker: Heidi Konsten – Legislative Regulations Committee Chairperson

2. Public Comments.

Members of the public will be invited to speak before the Committee; however, no action may be taken on a matter during public comment until the matter itself has been included on an agenda. Prior to the commencement and conclusion of a contested case or a quasi judicial proceeding that may affect the due process rights of an individual, the Committee may refuse to consider public comment. See NRS 233B.126. Public comments may be limited to 3 minutes per person at the discretion of the chairperson.

3. To solicit comments for proposed permanent regulations relating to the practice of court reporting identified as R112-17:

- Revising various provisions relating to the examination required to be taken by an applicant for a certificate of registration as a court reporter;
- Removing provisions that authorize such an applicant to review and appeal his or her examination;
- Revising provisions relating to continuing education required to be completed by a court reporter or designated representative of a court reporting firm;
- Revising provisions concerning the examination required to be taken by a person who is not a certified court reporter but wishes to serve as a designated representative of a court reporting firm and increasing the fee for such an examination;
- Requiring that a request for an advisory opinion by the Certified Court Reporters' Board of Nevada include a certain certification;
- Revising procedural provisions relating to informal complaints filed with the Board and providing other matters properly relating thereto.
