The purpose of the workshop is to solicit comments from interested persons on the following general topics that may be addressed in the proposed regulations:

1. Workshop called to order.

Speaker: Dan Waite – Legislative Regulations Committee Chairman

2. Public Comments.

Public comment is welcomed by the Board and may be limited to three minutes per person at the discretion of the Chair. Public comment will be allowed at the beginning and end of the meeting, as noted on the agenda. The Chair may allow additional time to be given to a speaker as time allows and at their sole discretion. No action may be taken upon a matter raised under this item of the agenda until the matter itself has been specifically included on an agenda as an item upon which action may be taken (NRS 241.020). Prior to the commencement and conclusion of a contested case or a quasi-judicial proceeding that may affect the due process rights of an individual, the Board may refuse to consider public comment. See NRS 233B.126.

3. To solicit comments for proposed permanent regulations relating to the practice of court reporting identified as LCB File No. R172-20.

- Requiring a firm to sever itself from a designated representative of the court reporting firm under certain circumstances;
- Requiring court reporters and firms to offer or provide services or products to each party to a proceeding at the same time;
- Requiring court reporters and firms to provide certain transcripts and recordings of such transcripts to third-parties under certain circumstances;
- Authorizing the Board to consider and admit into evidence certain mitigating and aggravating circumstances in disciplinary proceedings;
- Making various changes relating to the provision of transcripts to parties;
- Requiring each court reporter and designated representative of a court reporting firm to complete at least 15 credits of continuing education every 2 years and making other changes related to continuing education.

Speaker: Dan Waite – Legislative Regulations Committee Chairman

4. To solicit comments for proposed permanent regulations relating to the practice of court reporting identified as LCB File No. R010-21.

Requiring a firm to place its name and the license number it received from the Board on:

- Certain correspondence to a court reporter or other court reporting firms;
- All invoices sent to a client;
- The cover page of all transcripts of proceedings; and
- On all advertisements for court reporting services in the state of Nevada.
