Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law authorizes the Certified Court Reporters' Board of Nevada to adopt such regulations as are necessary to carry out the provisions of law relating to certified court reporters and court reporting firms. (NRS 656.130)

Senate Bill No. 406 of the 2017 Legislative Session, which becomes effective on January 1, 2018, requires each applicant for a certificate of registration as a court reporter to fulfill certain requirements, including passing an examination prescribed by the Board. (NRS 656.150, as amended by section 11 of Senate Bill No. 406, chapter 361, Statutes of Nevada 2017, at page 2217) Senate Bill No. 406 also eliminates the requirement that the examination include a practical demonstration portion. (NRS 656.160, as amended by section 12 of Senate Bill No. 406, chapter 361, Statutes of Nevada 2017, at page 2217) Accordingly, section 19 of this regulation repeals the provisions relating to that portion of the examination, and sections 5, 6, 8 and 9 of this regulation make conforming changes. Section 5 also revises provisions relating to the equipment that an applicant is required to bring to the examination.

Existing regulations provide that after the Board provides official notice of the results of an examination, an applicant is authorized to review his or her examination and appeal any aspect of the examination. (NAC 656.150) Section 7 of this regulation removes the provisions authorizing an applicant to review and appeal his or her examination.

Existing regulations establish provisions relating to continuing education that a court reporter or designated representative of a court reporting firm is required to complete. (NAC 656.205-656.240) Section 10 of this regulation removes the provision requiring that a written notice of noncompliance from the Board be mailed by certified or registered mail. Section 11 of this regulation provides that the Board will approve courses of study for continuing education upon written request, at the next open meeting of the Board after receipt of the request, rather than on an annual basis.

Existing regulations require that before a person who is not a certified court reporter is authorized to serve as a designated representative of a court reporting firm, the person must pass an examination that consists of 100 multiple-choice questions. The fee for such an examination is $100 for an initial examination and $50 for each subsequent examination taken within 1 year after the initial examination. (NAC 656.261, 656.265) Section 12 of this regulation increases the fee for an initial or subsequent examination to $250. Section 13 of this regulation increases the number of multiple choice questions on the examination to 125.

Existing regulations authorize a person to request that the Board issue an advisory opinion concerning the applicability of a statute, regulation or decision of the Board unless the advisory opinion concerns a question or matter that is an issue in a pending administrative, civil or criminal proceeding. (NAC 656.415) Section 15 of this regulation requires a person to certify in a request for an advisory opinion that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief, the request does not concern a question or matter that is an issue in a pending administrative, civil or criminal proceeding.

Sections 16-18 of this regulation revise certain procedural provisions relating to an informal complaint filed with the Board concerning the acts of or services provided by a holder of a certificate or license.
