

EXPLANATION – Matter in blue italics is new material; and matter between ~~[red brackets with single strikethrough]~~ is material to be omitted.

Certificate by Endorsement

NRS or NAC Definition: “Certificate by Endorsement” means a certificate to practice court reporting issued to a natural person within the jurisdiction of the United States, who has been certified as a court reporter or voice writer in a jurisdiction other than Nevada.*

NAC 656.XXX “Certificate by Endorsement” means a certificate to practice court reporting issued to a natural person under the provisions of this chapter.

1. Any natural person who is certified as a court reporter or voice writer in a jurisdiction other than Nevada may, with the approval of the Board, practice court reporting as a certified court reporter/voice writer. A natural person requesting the approval of the Board to practice court reporting under the provisions of this section of NAC shall submit to the Board:

a) An application accompanied by a fee of $200 and all information as required under NRS 656.150 and NRS 656.180

b) Documentation or other proof that the person has at least one continuous year of experience working full-time in the practice of court reporting; and

c) A copy of one of the following:

1) A certificate as a Registered Professional Reporter, Registered Merit Reporter or Certified Realtime Reporter issued to the natural person by the National Court Reporters Association; or

2) A certificate as a Certified Verbatim Reporter issued to the natural person by the National Verbatim Reporters Association.

2. A natural person who is granted applying for a certificate by endorsement shall take successfully pass a written examination in accordance with NRS 656.160 and NRS 656.170.

3. A natural person issued a certificate by endorsement shall comply with the provisions set forth in NRS 656 and NAC 656 and all applicable laws, regulations and court procedural rules governing court reporters.

4. To the extent applicable, the Board will apply the laws, regulations and court procedural rules governing court reporters, including, without limitation, suspension or revocation of a certificate, to a natural person holding a certificate by endorsement as the Board applies those statutes and regulation to court reporters.

5. A natural person holding a certificate by endorsement may administer oaths and affirmations in accordance with NRS 656.315.